Memories from Wayne Gampp..

In view of the 50th Anniversary of our Sunshine Church building, I thought I would relate some information about the purchase of the land, contract for construction of a building and the financial arrangements that I remember.

In 1966 in preparation for a future building a 1.8 acre site was purchased for $6,000 (this is the location of the present building).

In discussion with Continental Church Builders it was learned that a building suitable for our needs was going to cost $56,128. We had very little cash on hand and in talking with lenders it was learned that we would need to have $10,000 in addition to our land in order to borrow the balance.

We polled the congregation to learn of their willingness to loan the church money or to make an extra contribution toward this end. This effort resulted in approximately $11,000.

On September 24, 1967 the trustees were authorized to borrow 45,000 at 6.5% from Citizens Savings & Loan. This Loan was closed and construction was started in the fall.

Continental Church Builders hired Morris Bender, a local builder to be their superintendent and the congregation provided much volunteer labor which saved much money.

The entire project worked very smoothly and we held the first meeting in the new building on the first Sunday in March 1968.

All of the borrowed money was paid back early or on time. Many of the "loans" from the members were "forgiven" when it was time to repay.

In 1966 & 1967 when these decisions were made, this was a rather large project for a small country church whose weeks' budget was $250 per week.

A Memory from Delores Gampp...

When Mark Gampp was 3 years old and the new building was almost finished, just lacking pews and carpet, the new building was "christened" with its first baptism. Bill Meade, the preacher, baptized Dwight Shumway, while the members stood around the baptistery. John Gampp held little Mark in his arms to watch the event. On the way home, Mark said, "That man put his hand over that boys nose and gave him a bath!"
