Have You Been There and Done That?

“Lord, You just don’t understand what I’m going through!”
Have you ever said or thought something like that?

The Bible tells us that “we do not have a High Priest who cannot sympathize with our weaknesses, but was in all points tempted as we are, yet without sin. (Hebrews 4:15). Yes, Jesus understands because He has “been there, done that”!

The difference is, while we often yield to temptation, Jesus never did –not even once.

Now, Jesus may not have been tempted to do exactly the same things you are tempted to do. Driving 75 MPH in a 55 zone was not an option in the first century! But was He tempted to be impatient and to violate laws that seemed inconvenient at the moment? Of course!

The temptations Jesus resisted were of the same varieties as the ones you and I face: “the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life” (1 John 2:16).

In Matthew 4, when Satan tempted Him to turn stones into bread, the craving of the flesh was powerful – He had not eaten for 40 days!

The prospect of jumping off the high pinnacle of the temple appealed to pride – what a great show it would be to walk away unscathed. Then Satan showed Him the kingdoms of the world (lust of the eyes) and offered them to Him (pride of life).

Truly, Jesus was tempted in all points as we are. Some people erroneously see Jesus as immune from actual temptation. They think that since He was God in the flesh, temptations really didn’t affect Him as they do us. They were merely annoyances that bounced off of Him like bullets off of Superman.

Not So! Such would be a mockery, and would provide us with no comfort or assurance whatsoever.

Family Bible Time

People were bringing little children to Jesus to have him touch them, but the disciples rebuked them. When Jesus saw this, he was indignant. He said to them, "Let the little children come to me
And do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these."

Mark 10:13-14

Either Jesus' temptations were every bit as strong and trying as ours, or He was a fake, a fraud, and an impostor.

Our Lord did not "cheat" by using infinite power (omnipotence) to overcome temptations. He fought on the same field as everyone else (see Philippians 2:7) He "emptied Himself, taking the form of a servant, being made in the likeness of men".

How blessed we are to have such a sympathetic High Priest! When we are tempted, Jesus can say, "I understand fully what you are experiencing. I've been where you are."

That isn't an excuse to yield to temptation. It is an assurance that there is Someone there to help us, and to lift us up when we stumble. "Let us therefore come boldly to the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy and find grace to help in time of need (Hebrews 4:16).

God Loves You and We Love You too.

Have a wonderful day!
