There Is Only One Hope

There is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling; One Lord, one faith, one baptism, One God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all" (Ephesians 4:4-6).

First, the Lord's Word identifies the "one hope." Keep in mind that the Bible sometimes refers to "hope" in a general sense. When used in this sense, hope is the expectation of something good in the future.

An illustration is given in 1 Corinthians 9:10: "he that ploweth should plow in hope." When a farmer plows in hope, he expects to reap a harvest in the future.

Ephesians 4:4 is more specific, however, in that it mentions "the one hope of your calling." A number of passages identify the "one hope" as eternal life in heaven that Christ will give to His faithful followers when He returns.

One such passage is Colossians 1:3-5. As Paul expressed his gratitude for the Christians in Colossae, he mentioned "the hope which is laid up for you in heaven."

Second, the Lord's Word identifies those who have the "one hope." We learn from Ephesians 2:11-12 that those who are outside of Christ have no hope.

Thankfully, the Lord has made it possible for us to be born again so we can have the "one hope." In 1 Peter 1:3 we read: "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead."

Third, the Lord's Word identifies responsibilities in connection with the "one hope." We are to rejoice in hope (Romans 12:12).

Family Bible Time

Dear Lord, remind me that this life is not all about me and my needs, but about others and how Your love can shine through me to them.
May Christlike love be my distinguishing characteristic.
As followers of Christ, our love should make us stand out in a crowd

Also, we are to prepare our minds so we can “hope to the end” (1 Peter 1:13).

Furthermore, the “one hope” will lead us to be pure (1 John 3:2-3).

Fourth, the Lord's Word identifies certain benefits in connection with the “one hope.”

For example, the “one hope” is described as “an anchor of the soul” in that it will prevent us from drifting away from the Lord (Hebrews 6:17-19).

In addition, the “one hope” saves us in that it will help us to exercise patience while we wait for eternal life to become a reality (Romans 8:18-25).

Have you submitted to the “one baptism” to enter the “one body” so you can have the “one hope” that is declared in the “one faith?”

God Loves You and We Love You Too!

Have a wonderful day!
