Early in her life, Fanny had a dream in which she saw the panorama of a glorious heaven, and many of her songs reflect that theme. When Zacharias praised God in anticipation of the Messiah (Luke 1:67-80), he also looked forward to a spiritual sunrise.

Citing Malachi 4:1-3, 1) "For behold, the day is coming, burning like a furnace, when all the arrogant and every evildoer will be stubble; the day is coming when I will set them ablaze," says the LORD of Hosts. "Not a root or branch will be left to them." 2) "But for you who fear My name, the sun of righteousness will rise with healing in its wings, and you will go out and leap like calves from the stall. 3) Then you will trample the wicked, for they will be ashes under the soles of your feet on the day I am preparing," says the LORD of Hosts he proclaimed:

"Through the tender mercy of our God, With which the Dayspring from on high has visited us; To give light to those who sit in darkness and the shadow of death, To guide our feet into the way of peace" (Luke 1:78-79; John 1:9; 2 Peter 1:19; Revelation 22:16). According to the inspired Scriptures, that Messiah came to earth, died for our sins, rose again, ascended, and promised to return for us (Romans 5:8; Matthew 28:6; 1 Corinthians 15:20; Acts 1:9; John 14:1-3).

Do we feel surrounded by dark and confusing circumstances?

We can still lift our praise to God for the bright future we will one day share with His Son.

The words of Fanny Crosby's beloved hymn "Blessed Assurance" encourages us as we anticipate this glorious reunion with our Lord.

Blessed assurance, Jesus is mine!
O what a foretaste of glory divine!
Heir of salvation, purchase of God,
Born of His Spirit, washed in His blood.

This is my story, this is my song,
Praising my Savior all the day long;
This is my story, this is my song,
Praising my Savior all the day long. —F. J. Crosby

Share God With Your Family Please teach your children to be thankful and give praise to the Father that we live in a country where we do have the freedom to pray and worship God openly. Let's not take that freedom for granted. Americans are truly blessed. Please be in prayer for all the Christians that are suffering at the hands of evil, especially on foreign lands. Pray that this freedom to praise will always continue in our country.
