Holy Worship

¹⁰ Therefore I led them out of Egypt and brought them into the wilderness. ¹¹ I gave them my decrees and made known to them my laws, by which the person who obeys them will live. ¹² Also I gave them my Sabbaths as a sign between us, so they would know that I the LORD made them holy. ¹³ “Yet the people of Israel rebelled against me in the wilderness. They did not follow my decrees but rejected my laws—by which the person who obeys them will live—and they utterly desecrated my Sabbaths. So I said I would pour out my wrath on them and destroy them in the wilderness. ¹⁴ But for the sake of my name I did what would keep it from being profaned in the eyes of the nations in whose sight I had brought them out. ¹⁵ Also with uplifted hand I swore to them in the wilderness that I would not bring them into the land I had given them—a land flowing with milk and honey, the most beautiful of all lands—¹⁶ because they rejected my laws and did not follow my decrees and desecrated my Sabbaths. For their hearts were devoted to their idols. Ezekiel 20:10-16

Whenever we think of the Sabbath, we normally think of God's exhortation not to work on that day. In Exodus, the people Israel were instructed to gather twice the manna on the sixth day so that they would not have to gather on the Sabbath. The command says, “Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy” (Exodus 20:8). The people did no work. They had no place to travel. They had no TV, phone, radio, books, newspapers or other entertainment. They did not prepare any meals. What did the people DO on the Sabbath? What did God mean when he said to keep it holy?

In their tents and in the tabernacle, the people “worshiped” on the Sabbath. They probably did not sing songs from a screen or song book or listen to a preacher, but they did hear the words of the LORD and thought about all of the great things that he had done for them. The interesting thing is that God commanded that they keep the Sabbath holy. They could not do it only when they felt like it. Another thing that we should notice is that Israel profaned the Sabbath by worshiping their idols. That is, they worshiped what and how they wanted to. God is a jealous god.

LORD said: “I am making a covenant with you. Before all your people I will do wonders never before done in any nation in all the world. The people you live among will see how awesome is the work that I, the LORD, will do for you. ¹¹ Obey what I command you today. I will drive out before you the Amorites, Canaanites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites. ¹² Be careful not to make a treaty with those who live in the land where you are going, or they will be a snare among you. ¹³ Break down their altars, smash their sacred stones and cut down their Asherah poles. ¹⁴ Do not worship any other god, for the LORD, whose name is Jealous, is a jealous God. Exodus 34:10-14

⁰ Then the It is a fact that God and Jesus are “the same yesterday and today and forever” (Hebrews 13:8). They do not change their minds as we do, although they do choose to deal differently with us today than they did with Israel. If God felt so strongly about worship in that day, does he desire our worship any less? Our Sunday worship services are not the same as the Sabbath. We are not under the law of Moses or under the ten commandments directly. We do bear the same relationship to God that Israel did though, for we are His chosen people. God wants our worship as much now as He did in that time.

How will He judge us if we neglect to make our worship holy?

Where the Heart Is

A home has walls glued together with the magic paste of tears and laughter,
sorrows and joys, hopes and dreams.
It takes many things to make a home:

An attic filled with yesterdays...

Rooms filled with today...

And children filled with tomorrows.

A home is a house with four walls held together by a family's love. bd
