Image and Likeness

“Then God said, “Let us make man in our image, after our likeness.” Genesis 1:26

One of the most remarkable aspects of being human is that, as an image bearer of God, you, in your body and in your relationships, have the capacity to reflect the very nature of God Himself. You are able to live your life in such a way that it can point beyond itself, encountering the love of God and sharing that love with the world.

Throughout the history of Christianity, this passage from Genesis has been one of the central verses to our entire understanding of what it means to be human. Rather than seeing “image” and “likeness” as two ways of making the same point, it has often been interpreted as making two separate statements.

Simply put, every single human being who has ever lived is made in God’s image, yet Scripture reminds us that not all humans equally reflect His likeness.

However, the likeness of God is offered to us in such a way that it is something we must conform our actions and desires to – it is the very heart of what is often called “Christ-like living.” It is why Paul said to the Galatians that his great desire was for Christ to be formed in them (Gal.4:19).

Though it was his desire for them, he knew this Christ-likeness wasn’t a given. It wasn’t automatic that they would always reflect Christ in their lives. The same is true for us today.

The reality of life is that, if we’re honest with ourselves, we are at times both “likeness bearers” and “likeness rejecters.” There are days that we live our lives with great faithfulness, but others where we come up miserably short. Yet the hope of the gospel is that, when we are faithless, God is faithful. Our failings are never meant to be a cause for despair, but instead an invitation to receive God’s grace anew. The invitation of the gospel is always extended to us, beckoning us forward, calling us out of sin and selfishness and into the life of image and likeness bearers!

Father, give us the grace to live lives that faithfully reflect your image and likeness to the world around us.

God Loves You and We Love You Too.

He's With Us

Often, we wonder how God can let us go through pain if He is supposed to be all loving. "How could He let this happen?" rolls off our lips. Yet, through our own personal pain we lose sight of the fact that God is with feeling as much pain as we are. Ironically, pain entered the world because when God said, "Let us make man in our image, in our likeness." (Gen.1:26) He also gave the "created image" a choice to follow their creator. God wanted a creation that would love Him because they chose to, not because they had to. As a result of that choice, sin entered the world, along with tears, disaster and death. At the point when God could have turned His back "...Christ Jesus; Who being in the very nature God, did not consider equality with God something to be grasped, but made himself nothing, taking the very nature of a servant, being made in human likeness. And being found in appearance as a man, he humbled himself and became obedient to death even death on the cross. (Phil 2:5-8). Instead of turning His back, God still gave us an escape of sin, death, and pain as He gave us Himself. "You see, at just the right time, when we were still powerless, Christ died for the ungodly (Rom.5:6)." So, where is God when we are hurting? He is right there beside us, just hold on to Him. He's also provided a way of escape. For God was pleased to have all his fullness dwell in him, and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, by making peace through His blood that was shed on the cross.(Col.1:19-20)

THE GIFTS HE GAVE WERE THAT SOME WOULD BE APOSTLES, SOME PROPHETS, SOME EVANGELISTS, SOME PASTORS AND TEACHERS, TO EQUIP THE SAINTS FOR THE WORK OF MINISTRY, FOR BUILDING UP THE BODY OF CHRIST. EPHESIANS 4:11-12

C.S. Lewis once wrote about the church saying, He felt that the model many of us have in our minds for the church is the same we have for secular organizations. That is, we think of the church as an organization that we join. Then we do what members of an organization normally do. We come to meetings and pay our dues. Maybe we sometimes read the organization's newsletter or handbook, if we have time. This is not Christ's model for His Church.

Christ's intent is that His people will be joined to His Church in the same way that members of a physical body are joined to the body. It is a living relationship. The body gives life to its members and they, in turn, are an indispensable part to the body. For the person in whom Christ dwells, being actively involved with the church is not merely an option, anymore than an eye has an option about being involved with the physical body. Losing an eye is a tragedy for both the eye and for the body. Christ is saying that each of us is indispensable. We all have a very important place in His family, the body of Christ.

“Loving God, Help me to be an active and effective member of the body of Christ.”
In Jesus Name, Amen

Have a wonderful day!
