The New Preacher

The new preacher had just arrived. He had new stories, new sermons, and a dynamic new approach to all of the old problems. Large numbers from the community were attracted to him. It would be safe to call him singularly successful as an evangelist.

However a group of the “Old Guard” became concerned and they discussed him among themselves. His preaching did not sound like what they were accustomed to hearing.

It sounded new and unorthodox to their ears.

In fact, he accused them in dramatic and damning terms for their own aggressively conservative position (“But we’ve always done it this way”) This disturbed them greatly.

Something had to be done. It began as a matter of constant criticism. They criticized him for the ones he accepted into fellowship, because of the people he associated with, and the fact that great numbers of people agreed with him, especially the younger generation. They were afraid his teaching would soon destroy their traditions. They considered him a liberal, or a radical.

This teaching must stop! So, they began a plot to take his life. Some suggested that they should crucify him.

So they did On Calvary.

I came that you might have life and have it more abundantly. John 10:10

The Beatitudes

He said:

*Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

*Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted.

*Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth.

*Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be filled.

*Blessed are the merciful, for they shall be shown mercy.

*Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God.

*Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called children of God.

*Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

*Blessed are you when people insult you, persecute you, and say all kinds of evil against you falsely for My sake. Rejoice and be exceedingly glad, for great is your reward in heaven, for so they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

Matthew 5:3-11

Personal Evangelism-A Needed Emphasis

Among the many lessons emphasized by Jesus Christ, one of the most outstanding is that of personal, individual responsibility.

Have you ever thought of all the parables of judgement spoken by Jesus? The condemnation was for failure to do, and not for the wrong doing? Check them: "The Marriage Feast", "The Ten Virgins", "The Sheep and the Goats", "The Rich Farmer", "The Rich Man in Hades" and all the rest - were condemned for a failure to do that which should have been done rather than having lived immoral base sensual lives. This by no means insinuates that Jesus will excuse sins of immorality; He does not. It means that He recognized the need of and placed the emphasis on Doing that which should be done - positive conduct!

Here is where the emphasis needs to be placed today, while at the same time not neglecting to cry out against sinful practices.

Let every Christian recognize that he is "Salt", "Light", and "Leaven" where he works, among those that he associates with socially and in the community where he lives. Let each feel strong about his responsibility as a "missionary" ensuring the spiritual growth and development of the church.

We are His "Hands and Feet." We are the "Body of Christ."

Have a wonderful day!
