Would You Listen To Him?

A church was in need of a preacher. One of the elders was interested in finding out just what kind of preacher the church wanted. In order to do this, he composed a letter as though it had been received from a preacher, and read it to the congregation.

Gentlemen:

“Understanding that you need a preacher, I would like to come and work with you. I have many qualifications that I think you would appreciate. I have been blessed to preach with power, and have some success as a writer. Some say that I am a good organizer. I have been a leader in most places I have gone.

“Some folks, however, have some things against me. I am over fifty years of age. I have never preached in one place for more than three years at a time. In some places, I have left town after my work caused riots and disturbances. I have to admit that I have been in jail three or four times, but not because of any wrong doing. My health is not too good, though I still get a good deal done. I also have had to continue working my trade to help pay my way.

“The churches I have preached to have been small, though located in several large cities. I haven’t gotten along too well with most of the religious leaders where I have preached, so I am sure they would not recommend me. In fact, some of them threatened me, has taken me to court, and even attacked me physically. I am not too good at keeping records. I have even been known to forget whom I have baptized. However, if I may assist in the work there, I shall do my best, even if I have to work to help with my support.”

The letter was read to the congregation, and they were asked if they were interested in this preacher?

“They replied that he would never do.”

They were not interested in any unhealthy, troublemaking, contentious, jailbird; and were insulted that he had written! But one person did ask the preacher’s name, to whom the elder replied, his name is “The Apostle Paul.”

Don't Stop!

Don't Stop— When I was taking lessons to learn to fly an airplane, I learned early in the training that in order to keep the plane flying you have to keep your speed up. If you don't — down you will come.

Christianity is much like an airplane—
When You Stop — You Drop!

When you stop praying — You go down!

When you stop studying your Bible —

You go down!

When you stop attending—You go down!

When you stop being involved —

You go down!

No wonder Paul wrote, "Therefore, my beloved brethren, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that your labor is not in vain, in the Lord." (1 Cor. 15:58)

Keep Going!

What was the one talent man's problem in Matthew 25? He did nothing! Whatever you do— Don't Stop or You'll Drop!

Food For Thought:

Do your best to present yourself to God
as one approved, a worker who does not need to be ashamed and who correctly handles the word of truth.

Needless Poverty

“Ask and it shall be given you; seek and you shall find; knock and it shall be opened unto you; for everyone that asks receives; and he that seeks will find and to him that knocks it shall be opened. (Matthew 7:7-8)

It may be rather difficult to determine whether there is a greater danger in material poverty or prosperity. While many have been discouraged by poverty, many have also have been destroyed by prosperity. In the spiritual realm, however, prosperity should be earnestly sought.

John was aware that Gaius was prosperous in soul. He said “Dear friend, I pray that in all things you may prosper and be in health just as your soul prospers”(3 John 2).

Would you want someone to pray that your material prosperity be brought to the level of your spiritual prosperity? Would you be a millionaire or a pauper?

Many of us will never accumulate an earthly fortune, but any of us can be rich spiritually. We can possess “the boundless riches of Christ.” (Ephesians 3:8)

In view of this possibility, isn't it a tragedy that so many of us are needlessly poor? (James 4:2) says “You have not, because you ask not.” We mourn our spiritual poverty, when God wants us to be rich!

“He that seeks will find.”

Have a wonderful day!
