You Need To Observe People To Find a True Follower of The Lord

When a child of God matures in his or her walk with the Father in heaven, he or she sees themselves becoming smaller and smaller as they progress. Self is soon overtaken by the magnitude of the Lord. All else soon becomes insignificant because God is in control of their lives.

The best way to know whether or not a person is a true follower of the Lord is by observation. They will talk less about themselves and more about Jesus Christ.

A good example of this is John the Baptist in Mark 1:4-5, "John came baptizing in the wilderness & preaching a baptism of repentance for the remission of sins. Then all the land of Judea, and those from Jerusalem, went out to him and were baptized by him in the Jordan River, confessing their sins." John's ministry was exceptionally a success! Why? The answer is that John the Baptist understood that his ministry wasn't designed to bring attention to himself. In Mark 1:7, he said, "And he preached saying, 'There comes One after me who is mightier than I, whose sandal strap I am not worthy to stoop down and loose.'"

It matters not what your status is in this world. It is not the world that we are trying to please! Christians must endeavor to seek and strive to please the Saviour! Therefore, we give way to the Lord because He paid the sin debt for us! God doesn't look for those with earthly accomplishments, but for those who have humble hearts and bow before the authority of His Word. It is only when we forget about one's self do we draw closer to the Lord for that intimate relationship that all Christians should long for!

This includes the glorious preparations made for our home in eternity!

Wasted Years

I looked upon a farm one day,
That once I used to own;
The barn had fallen to the ground
The fields were overgrown.
The house in which my children grew
Where we had lived for years-
I turned to see it broken down,
And brushed aside the tears.
I looked upon my soul one day,
To find it too had grown
With thorns and thistles everywhere
The seeds neglect had sown.
The years had passed while I had cared
For things of lesser worth;
The things of heaven I let go
While minding things on earth.
To Christ I turned with bitter tears,
And cried, "Oh Lord forgive!
I haven't much time left for thee,
Not many years to live."
The wasted years forever gone,
The days I can't recall;
If I could live those days again,
I'd make Him Lord of all.

Food For Thought:

If we confess our sins,
He is faithful and just and will forgive us our sins and purify us from all unrighteousness.

We must not concern ourselves with the opinions of the world. We should hunger and thirst after the Lord for the wonderful things He has accomplished in our lives! We are all made in God's wonderful image (Genesis 1:26, 27), and we also have the freedom of choice when it comes to whom we want to serve. (Joshua 24:19-28). While it is true we have the freedom of choice because we are not robots, we cannot choose the consequences of our choice. The consequences are already set by our Father in heaven. And He has made known what the consequences for choosing disobedience are and that is eternal punishment and damnation. The rewards are also made known by a good and loving God.

Faithful obedience brings eternal rewards in heaven.

It appears that the right decision is clear.

Faithful service to the Lord not only benefits everyone in this life, but also beyond when this life ceases.

It is our earnest prayer that the right choice be made today before this mortal life ends!

God loves each and every one of His creation who are made after His likeness.

Are you willing to bring your broken life to the Great Physician for true healing?

God Loves You and We Love You Too

Have a wonderful day!
