How to Save a Good Persons Soul From Death

Brethren, if any of you do err from the truth, and one convert him; Let him know, that he which Jesus said, "And you shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free" (John 8: 32). Our Lord, the embodiment of divine truth, prayed on behalf of His followers in this manner: "Sanctify them through your truth; your word is truth" (John 17:17).

The Apostles were Guided into all of It

In John 16:12-14, Jesus promised the apostles that He would send the Holy Spirit, and He assured them that the Spirit would guide them "into all truth." Peter afterward affirmed that he and the other apostles had been given "all things that pertain unto life and godliness" (2 Pet. 1:3). Since all truth was revealed through the apostles, that left nothing in the way of new truth to come later.

It imparts Life

"Of his own will begat he us with the word of truth, that we should be a kind of first fruits of his creatures" (Jam. 1:18). We cannot go to the law of Moses to learn the truth of which Jesus is the author. Nor do we find that truth in human creeds, the decrees of Popes, the traditions of the fathers, or by doing whatever seems right in our own eyes.

It Is Possible To Err From The Truth

James was concerned about brethren who "err from the truth." God does not hold men to the truth by some irresistible compulsion (2 Pet. 1:10). In various ways people stray from the truth.

(1) By turning their ears from the truth. Paul warned that men would gather about them teachers who would scratch their itching ears, "And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables" (2 Tim. 4:3, 4).

(2) By failing to see the value of the truth. One may walk according to the truth for a time, then decide to leave the truth because he sees no real value in it. What we believe does make a difference. For example, if one believes in faith only, many will be led astray and never fully obey the gospel of Christ (James 2:24).

(3) By deception. "But evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived" (2 Tim. 3:13). Peter warned of men who twist the scriptures, cautioning his readers not to be led away converts the sinner from the error of his way shall save a soul from death, and shall hide a multitude of sins" (James 5:19, 20).

This verse acknowledges that truth is our standard for righteousness.

Notice four facts about the gospel truth:

Jesus is its Author

"For the law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ" (John 1:17). What Moses taught was true, being from God, but Jesus is the source of the system of truth by which we receive the provisions of God's grace.

It Frees and Sanctifies with the error of the wicked (2 Pet 3:16,17).

(4) By neglect. "How shall we escape, if we neglect so great a salvation . . . ?" (Heb. 2:3). "Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God" (Heb. 3:12).

(5) By falling into sin. Some men and women never renounce the gospel in theory, but in practice they abandon the truth. Many have fallen into sin and are now wallowing in it.

At the Foot of the Cross

At the foot of the cross, I lay it all down
Everything in my life, that's hidden deep onside
I give it away, for my Savior to heal
These fears that I have, that I've buried for years
At the feet of Jesus, my heart pours out tears
As I kneel and pray, my thoughts become clear
And finally see what's so very dear
At the foot of the cross, I cry out in pain
Anguishing thoughts pour out like rain
But, amidst these tears, I find a peace so calm
As Jesus scurries in, the darkness fades away
My heart is freed, my mind once again sane
And the past torments I've had are forever
washed away
My life burns brighter, like a dawning new day
At the foot of the cross, I'm loved and not lost
Where the Holy drops of blood, paid my sins cost
And the Savior was taken, now risen once more
Through the grace of God, the veil was torn
And the world was cast a new rope of hope
Dangling freely from Heaven, climbed by faith
To an eternal place, where's no sin or death
At the foot of the cross, life can be found
On your knees, by the blood
On Calvary's ground.

The Son of man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified,
and the third day rise again. Luke 24:7

Sinners Need To Be Converted

There are two classes of sinners: aliens (people who have never entered into covenant relationship with God) and erring brethren. James was addressing brethren in our text. "Brethren, if any of you do err from the truth..."

The faithful have an obligation to the erring. Some who have erred will resent our admonitions, but others will profit by them.

Our manner of approach is important (Gal. 6:1,2).

We often show eagerness to save our health, our reputation, our business, funds for old age, etc. Everyone's first concern should be the saving of the soul. Jesus taught that the soul is more valuable than all the world (Matt. 16:26).

Death, eternal separation from God, is the penalty for sin. "For the wages of sin is death. . ."

(Rom. 6:23). Some try to make sickness, or mental anguish, or possibly physical death the only punishment for sin. Others suppose that annihilation is the penalty.

The Bible describes the punishment for sin as one's being "cast into the lake of fire" which is "the second death" (Rev. 20:14 cf, 15; 21:8). To save a soul from this horrendous place is the main objective for Christians in this life, not only for others but for ourselves also (Acts 2:40)! "Take heed to yourself and to the doctrine. Continue in them, for in doing this you will save both yourself and those who hear you" (1 Tim 4:16).

God Loves You and We Love You Too.

Have a wonderful day!
