Abundant Generosity

I read a story about a good customer at a local restaurant always left a generous tip for his steady waitress. On the story day the waitress was blown away by the tip good customer left for her. The bill for the well to do good customer was for $12.45 and his tip was $400.00. Can we even imagine it? What a terrific display of abundant generosity from this customer!

Paul gave Timothy a charge to encourage the more wealthy members of the Lord's church in his area, to display an abundant generosity mindset as well (1 Timothy 6:17-18).

It was obvious these members didn't fully understand their responsibility to the kingdom of God with regard to their money and possessions (2 Corinthians 8:1-5), so Paul challenged Timothy to remind them that along with great wealth comes great responsibility spiritual principle in Luke 12:48). (But the one who did not know, and did what deserved a beating, will receive a light beating. Everyone to whom much was given, of him much will be required, and from him to whom they entrusted much, they will demand the more.)

This responsibility included being humble, finding their security in God—not in riches and using their money to do good (1 Timothy 6:17-18; Gal. 6:10).

They needed to know that "how" they handled their money and possessions, was a revealing factor in indicating the spiritual condition of their heart (Acts 5:1-11).

Brethren, even if we're not wealthy, money wise, God has still called us to have an abundant generosity mindset.

We can share what we do have (time, talents, opportunity, etc.) and be rich in good deeds (1 Timothy 6:18; Proverbs 3:27; Gal. 6:10).

If we have a generous attitude about our money, we are much more likely to be generous in other matters concerning the Lord's people and His work.

God Loves You and We Love You Too

We send our love and condolences to Steve Williams and Family at the passing of his brother. May God comfort you all.

A LAW OF LIFE

The other day a boy refused to obey his mother. Angrily he ran off to a ravine and cried out "I hate you!" Suddenly the words came echoing back, "I hate you!" Frightened, he ran back home to his mother and said, Mom, there's a bad man in the woods. I heard him say, "I hate you!"

The mom knowing what had happened said, "Go back to the ravine and say, "I love you!" So, he did this, he called out "I love you!" And the same words came back to him. "Son" she said, this is a law of life. What you give, is what you get back. What you say is what you hear.

The Bible says, "Be not deceived; God is not mocked:
Whatsoever a man soweth, that he shall also reap."
Galatians 6:7

Have a wonderful day!
