Where Do Our Spirits Reside After Death And Before The Judgement?

The Bible doesn't tell us everything we would like to know about death and what it's like beyond the grave. But it tells us enough about it that we want to prepare for it.

The account of the rich man and Lazarus in Luke 16:19-31 gives ample information about life after death. Though many do not believe it and attempt to make it meaningless, Jesus told it to be true, and since He does not lie (Titus 1:2) we'd better believe it!

At death, the soul separates from the body and goes to hades. Hades is not the same as hell. It is the temporary waiting place of all the dead, whether good or bad. It is the unseen world of departed spirits, the spirit world. Both the rich man and Lazarus are there now, as are all those who have died (Lk. 16:27-31).

There are two isolated places in hades: tartarus and paradise.

The rich man is in torment — tartarus, and Lazarus is in Abraham's bosom — paradise (Lk. 16:23, 25).

Tartarus is the place where the wicked are held. The word hell in 2 Peter 2:4 is the Greek word tartarus. It means, an abyss, dungeon, prison house. It is not the word that designates the final punishment of the wicked. That word is gehenna and means hell (Matt. 10:28).

Paradise is the place where the righteous are held. It was to this place that Jesus went after His death (Lk. 23:43). It is not the same as heaven where God is, because even after the resurrection, Jesus had not yet ascended to heaven (Jn. 20:17).

Hades, then, is the place where all men go when they die to await the final judgment (Jn. 5:28-29; 2 Cor. 5:10).

The destiny of those who go there is fixed!

There is no other chance! It is not possible for Lazarus or the rich man to cross over to the other side (Lk. 16:26). If you awake in tartarus, your final end is the eternal fire of hell. No one in tartarus is happy. There is pain, torment, and anguish.

The only way to escape it is to prepare now to go to paradise.

Repent and be baptized for the forgiveness of your sins (Acts 2:38).

Continue to grow in the grace and knowledge of Christ (2 Pet. 3:18), renewing your soul daily (Ephesians 4:22-24).

There's no other way but the Lord's way. Do you believe it? If so, then you must obey.

God Loves You and We Love You Too

A builder built a temple,
He wrought it with grace and skill;
Pillars and groins and arches
All fashioned to work his will.
Men said, as they saw its beauty,
"It shall never know decay.
Great is thy skill, O builder,
Thy fame shall endure for aye."

A teacher built a temple
With loving and infinite care,
Planning each arch with patience,
Laying each stone with prayer.
None praised her unceasing efforts,
None knew of her wondrous plan;
For the temple the teacher had built
Was unseen by the eyes of man.

Gone is the builder's temple,
Crumbled into dust;
Low lies each stately pillar,
Food for consuming rust.
But the temple the teacher built
Will last while the ages roll,
For that beautiful unseen temple
Is a child's immortal soul.

THE MAKING OF HABITS

A wise old man was taking a stroll through a forest with a boy by his side. The man suddenly stopped and pointed to the four plants close at hand. The first was a tiny sprout just coming out of the earth. The second had rooted itself quite firmly in the fertile soil. The third was a small shrub and the fourth had grown into a well developed tree.

The wise old man said son, "Pull up this plant." The boy pulled it up easily with his fingers. "Now pull the second one." With little effort the plant came up, roots and all. "And now the third" said the man. The boy pulled with one hand, then the other, but it would not come. Then he took both hands to pull, and finally the plant yielded to all his strength. "And now," said the man, "try the fourth." The boy grasped the trunk with all his might, not even a leaf moved. "I cannot move it," he exclaimed.

"This is so," said the wise old man, "with our bad habits. When they are young and small we can cast them out, but when they are full-grown, they cannot be rooted easily."

"Sow a thought, reap an act, sow an act, reap a habit"

In Philippians 4:8 Paul says fix your thoughts on what is true and good and right. Think about things that are pure and lovely, and dwell on the fine, good things in others.

Just a thought ;

A bad habit starts out as a cobweb, but ends as a chain.

Have a wonderful day!
