There Are Big and Small Potatoes in Life

My Grand-parents Allie and Lula McCray always grew great potatoes. I noticed they always used large potatoes with a lot of eyes for seed. I ask why they didn't use the small (marble) ones for seed and eat only the large ones.

My grandpa Allie stated quite soundly, "His Father Daniel told him if you used the marbles you would cause a reduction in all the potatoes to the size of marbles"! Daniel had learned through bitter experience that they couldn't keep the best things in life for themselves and use the leftovers for seed.

The laws of life decreed that the harvest would reflect the planting. But you know, planting small potatoes is still a common practice with a lot of us. Too many of us take all the big things of life for ourselves and only plant the leftovers.

We expect that by some crazy twist of the laws of nature our selfishness will be rewarded with blessings.

We must learn that we can't always eat the big potatoes and still keep having all big ones.

Planting small potatoes simply means that is all we can expect in return. This law applies in family relationships, friendships, on the job, in community affairs, in politics and everywhere else.

This law applies especially in our service to God.

We succeed when we sacrifice. Whether it is in attending worship services, teaching others about God, visiting the sick, or giving. The big potatoes given to God will result in more blessings than we can even dream about.

In Malachi 3:10 God is teaching the Israelites the law of small potatoes. In verse 10 we read, "Bring the whole tithe into the storehouse, so that there may be food in My house. Test Me now in this," says the LORD of hosts, "see if I will not open for you the windows of heaven and pour out for you a blessing until it overflows." The greatest blessing of all, of course, is that of eternal life. We can have the hope of heaven if we choose to give our life to God, rather than keep it for ourselves.

Jesus said, "For whoever desires to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake will find it." (Matt. 16:25).

God Loves You and We Love You Too

Each Life Affects Another

We may not always realize that everything we do
Affects not only our lives,
but touches others too.
For A little bit of thoughtfulness that shows someone you care Creates A ray of sunshine for both of you to share.
Yes, every time you offer someone
a helping hand,
Every time you show a friend you
care and understand,
You help someone find beauty in
this precious life we live;
For happiness brings happiness
and loving ways bring love,
And giving is the treasure that contentment is made of.

The Way Of The Cross

A little girl was lost on the street of the great city of London. The police found her and tried to help, but she could not remember her address. "Do you live near Westminster?" they asked. But she did not recognize that name. "Do you live near the House of Parliament?" No. "Do you live near Nelson's statue?" She knew nothing about that. Finally, they thought of Charing Cross, where the great stone cross stands. "Do you live near the great cross, my child?" The little girl looked up with a tear stained face that lighted up as she said. "Oh, yes! Take me to the cross! I can get home from there."

In speaking of the cross, Jesus said, "But I, when I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto myself." (Jno.12:32) Jesus had reference to the cross when he said, "This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins." (Matt.26:28) Paul says it is the way home; "And through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or things in heaven, by making peace through His blood, shed on the cross."

We are lost and without hope of finding our way home on our own. There is only one way to find our way— the cross.

The song , "The Way of The Cross Leads Home." says it best.

I must needs go home by the way of the cross, There's no other way but this;
I shall ne'er get sight of the gates of Light, if the way of the cross I miss.
The way of the cross leads home, The way of the cross leads home.
It is sweet to know as I onward go, The way of the cross leads home.

Have a wonderful day!
