For Your Stability Now and Forever

In a world facing ever-changing circumstances, we need to be reminded of some truths about God. A great text that can help us do this is found in the writings of the Messianic prophet, Isaiah.

He tells us some exciting facts about God in Isaiah 33:5-6. In brief, Isaiah reminds us of God's transcendence ("exalted...on high"), His trustworthiness ("has filled Zion with justice and righteousness"), and His treasure ("a wealth of salvation, wisdom and knowledge; The fear of the Lord is his treasure").

In the midst of upholding God's perfect character, the prophet makes this reassuring statement: "And He will be the stability of your times."

In part, here is what that means to us today...

There is no minimum distance we have to keep from Him under any circumstance

(Jas. 4:8).

There is no restriction or limit on our access to Him and His blessings, on prayer or His Word (Phil. 4:19).

There is no chance that you will look for Him and He will not be there (Psa. 50:15).

There is no possibility that you will learn that what was true of Him yesterday is not true of Him today (or tomorrow)(Heb. 13:8)

There is no cancellation policy at the throne of grace for the child of God (Heb. 4:16).

There is no threat or danger that can keep you from the love of God (Rom. 8:38-39).

There is no earthly thing to nullify the truth that "the Lord is my helper, I will not be afraid" (Heb. 13:6). The more we expose ourselves to Him, the healthier we will be.

There is zero chance that you will go to Him for healing and have it fail (Jer. 8:22; Luke 5:31).

Scripture calls Him the Rock (Deut. 32:4), the shield (2 Sam. 22:31), my protection (Isa. 27:5), my shield, stronghold, and protection (2 Sam. 22:3), and a strong tower (Prov. 18:10). As Nebuchadnezzar understood, "all His works are true and His ways just" (Dan. 4:37).

Take heart. Take on the day. Take comfort and refuge.

"And He will be the stability of your times, now and forever.

God Loves You and We Love You Too

YOU ARE IMPORTANT

When you are tempted to take Sunday off and think that the absence of one person doesn't make a difference at the church service, you place your congregation in the same position as a person trying to type with a key missing.

The results are never quite the same as when all the members of the congregation are present.

Summer often reminds us that people are a pretty necessary ingredient in the life of any congregation of the church.

Please plan to be present.
You are very important!
Come worship with us.

Personal Involvement

The Minister's Monthly recounted the story of a shipwreck off the Rhode Island coast one winter.

A father and son that was aboard the ship managed to get into a lifeboat together. The father took charge of the oars, refusing to allow the boy to help row, the battle to reach the shore began.

Finally they touched land, but when the father attempted to help the boy out of the boat, he found him frozen to death. Had the son been allowed to help with the oars, even though he lacked experience rowing a boat the activity would have saved his life.

There is a lesson in this for all Christians. The leadership of the church must recognize the life-sustaining qualities of involvement for all. Although one is young in faith or possesses only one or two talents rather than five, there is still work for him to do. Wishing to spare some of the heaviness of a task may actually freeze them to death spiritually. For every Christian who has been worked to death, there must be hundreds who have frozen from inactivity.

All Christians must realize their responsibility to take an active part.

Be an active Christian, don't freeze to death from inactivity.

Have a wonderful day!
