Holding fast the faithful word as he hath been taught, that he may be able by sound doctrine both to exhort and to convince the gainsayers. For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, specially they of the circumcision: Whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake.

Titus 1:9-11 KJV

Paul gave Titus a difficult assignment by sending him to Crete. The island was noted throughout the region as a place where people were lazy and dishonest. "One of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The Cretians are always liars, evil beasts, slow bellies" (Titus 1:12). They did not need to be coddled or affirmed, but rather they needed a strong dose of the truth. So Paul instructed Titus to appoint leaders who would not just believe the truth but be willing to speak it even in the face of opposition. The "gainsayers" would speak out against the truth, but Paul noted that sound doctrine could overcome their objections. Our world is becoming increasingly removed from the truth. In fact, today many people challenge the very idea that there is such a thing as objective absolute truth. That's why we hear people saying things like, "My truth is..." as they try to justify their actions and beliefs. There is no such thing as "my truth" or "your truth." There is absolute truth, and it is found in the Word of God. Our challenge is to hold firmly to the truth—not to be harsh or judgmental, but to be committed to what is right. The truth is still the truth even if no one else believes or accepts it.

Our assignment is to be a source of sound doctrine and good instruction to all those who are willing to receive it.

“Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord”
(1 Corinthians 15:58).

Truth is not determined by popular vote, but by the unchanging Word of God.

Paul Chappel
