Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us, Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

Hebrews 12:1-2 KJV

The Christian life is not meant to be passive. It is an active, involved, and dedicated life. It is filled with challenges, hardship, and opposition. There are days when we may question if it is worth it to keep going. In those moments we must turn to God for the help and power to continue in His work. “But they that wait upon the LORD shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not be faint” (Isaiah 40:31).

We are called to be patient, and often we find that things take longer than we wish they would. But this patient running of the race is far more than just sitting around and waiting for something to happen—it is an active and determined patience that does everything possible and leaves the rest to God.

George Matheson wrote, “We commonly associate patience with lying down. We think of it as the angel that guards the couch of the invalid. Yet there is a patience that I believe to be harder—the patience that can run. To lie down in the time of grief, to be quiet under the stroke of adverse fortune, implies a great strength; but I know of something that implies a strength greater still: it is the power to work under stress; to have a great weight at your heart and still run; to have a deep anguish in your spirit and still perform the daily tasks. It is a Christ-like thing! The hardest thing is that most of us are called to exercise our patience, not in the sickbed but in the street.”

Patience is believing God will work through our efforts, not sitting back and expecting Him to do what we could do ourselves.

As a tree begins as a sprout, easily plucked from the soil. But if left to grow it becomes a strong tree which cannot be easily moved. And so it is with habits.

"Sow a thought, reap an act, sow an act, Reap a habit."

In Philippians 4:8 Paul says fix your thoughts on what is true and good and right. Think about things that are pure and lovely, and dwell on the fine, good things in others.

There Are Usually Two Sides to a Story

When hearing someone share one side of some incident or situation, it can be so easy to be drawn into their version of things and believe that is the only way of seeing things.

It is so very critical when listening to someone at a time like that to remind yourself of two things.

First, there is a very good chance that YOU do NOT need to be hearing whatever is being said.

There is a reason that God condemns slander (2 Tim. 3:3) and that He prescribes dealing with matters one-on-one (Matt. 18:15).

It may be that you need to tell this person, "You don't need to be telling this to me. You need to go and talk to that person directly."

Second, there is a very good chance that there is another side to this story that you are not hearing and may change your perspective and your conclusions.

There is a reason that God said, "The first one to plead his cause seems right," and "He who answers a matter before he hears it, (Prov.18:17)

To answer before listening — that is folly and shame." (Prov.18:13)

May God help us to be careful when others speak.

God Loves You and We Love You Too

Have a wonderful day!
