Holding fast the faithful word as he hath been taught, that he may be able by sound doctrine both to exhort and to convince the gainsayers. For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, especially they of the circumcision: Whose mouths must be stopped, they are disrupting whole households teaching things which they ought not, for the sake of dishonest gain. Titus 1:9–12

Paul gave Titus a difficult assignment by sending him to Crete. The island was noted throughout the region as a place where people were lazy and dishonest. “One of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The Cretans are always liars, evil brutes, lazy gluttons” (Titus 1:12). They did not need to be coddled or affirmed, but rather they needed a strong dose of the truth. So Paul instructed Titus to appoint leaders who would not just believe the truth but be willing to speak it even in the face of opposition.

The “gainsayers” would speak out against the truth, but Paul noted that sound doctrine could overcome their objections. Our world is becoming increasingly removed from the truth. In fact, today many people challenge the very idea that there is such a thing as objective absolute truth. That's why we hear people saying things like, “My truth is...” as they try to justify their actions and beliefs. There is no such thing as “my truth” or “your truth.” There is absolute truth, and it is found in the Word of God. Our challenge is to hold firmly to the truth—not to be harsh or judgmental, but to be committed to what is right. The truth is still the truth even if no one else believes or accepts it. Our assignment is to be a source of sound doctrine and good instruction to all those who are willing to receive it. “Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord” (1 Corinthians 15:58).

Truth is not determined by popular vote, but by the unchanging Word of God.

My Cup Has Overflowed

I've never made a fortune, and it's probably too late now.

But I don't worry about that much;
I'm happy anyhow.

And as I go along life's way, I'm reaping
better than I sowed.

I'm drinking from my saucer,
'cause my cup has overflowed.

Haven't got a lot of riches,
And sometimes the going's tough—
But I've got loving ones all around me; that makes me rich enough.

I thank God for all His blessings,
And the mercies He's bestowed.

I'm drinking from my saucer,
'cause my cup has overflowed.

I remember times when things went wrong;
My faith wore somewhat thin.

But all at once the dark clouds broke,
and the sun peeped through again.

So Lord, help me not to gripe
About the tough rows I've hoed.

I'm drinking from my saucer,
'cause my cup has overflowed.

If God gives me strength and courage
When the way grows steep and rough,

I'll not ask for other blessings;
I'm already blessed enough.

And may I never be too busy to help others bear their loads.

Then, I'll keep drinking from my saucer,
'cause my cup has overflowed.

The Ship Came In — An Unexpected Blessing

The sole survivor of a shipwreck was cast upon an uninhabited island. After a while he managed to build a crude hut in which he placed his “necessities” that he had saved from the sinking ship. He prayed to God for deliverance, and anxiously scanned the horizon each day to hail any ship that might chance to pass.

One day, upon returning from a hunt for food, he was horrified to find that his hut was in flames. ALL THAT HE HAD WAS GONE. To his limited vision, it was the worst that could happen, and he cursed God. Yet, the very next day a ship arrived.

“We saw your smoke signal,” the captain said...

Our commitment to the Lord should never waiver, even in the midst of trial and tribulation;

God is always committed to us and has said

“I will never leave you or forsake you...”

Hebrews 13:5

God Loves You and We Love You Too

Have a wonderful day!
