"All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: That the servant of God may be thoroughly equipped for every good work,

2 Timothy 3:16-17

The Bible is like a garment: You can pull a thread here, and it wrinkles way down at the bottom. The Bible is one book, but it is composed of sixty-six books. There are thirty-nine books in the Old Testament and twenty-seven books in the New Testament. At least forty different authors wrote these books over about sixteen hundred years. The Books were written in about thirteen different countries and on three different continents. People from all kinds of backgrounds wrote them: some were shepherds; some were kings; some were soldiers; some were princes; some were priests; some were fishermen; some were scholars; some were historians; some were business and professional men; and others were common laborers. They wrote on many different subjects, and they wrote from different backgrounds, in at least three different languages. Yet when these books come together, they don't make sixty-six separate books. From Genesis to Revelation, the Bible reads as one book. There is an incredible unity in the Bible. All the Bible is kind of summed up in this, "Jesus loves me, this I know. For the Bible tells me so!" God loves you.

This Book 'The Bible' tells us that Jesus left Heaven, came, suffered, bled, and died for your sin. God raised Him from the dead. He ascended to Heaven, and if you will trust Him and surrender your life to Him by following His Word, being baptized washing away your sins, He will save you and keep you according to the Word of God.

My Influence
My life shall touch a dozen lives
Before this day is done;
Leave countless marks for good or ill
Ere sets the evening sun.

So this the wish I always wish,
The prayer I ever pray;
“Lord, may my life help other lives
It touches along the way.

I expect to pass through this world but once. Any good, therefore that I can do, or any kindness that I can show to any fellow being, let me do it now. Let me not defer it or neglect it, for I shall not pass this this way again.

Don't Settle for Average

If a man were to stand with one hand on a hot stove and one hand in a freezer, some statistician would assert that, on average, this man is comfortable.

This reminds me of some who would seem to feel that they can come to church services on Sunday and yet live like the devil during the week. They say they are on average, pretty good people.

Such a person cannot be comfortable any more than the man with one hand on the stove and the other in a freezer.

He is a "doubleminded man, unstable in all his ways" (James 1:8). He only has enough religion to be miserable, but not enough to go to heaven.

Jesus does not want us to be average; average nauseates Him. Revelation 3:15 says "I know your deeds, that you are neither hot nor cold. I wish you were either one or the other! So, because you are lukewarm, neither hot nor cold, I will spit you out of MY mouth."

Let us get all the way on the Lord's side now, lest we spend our eternity without Him.

God Loves You
