Lord, I Don't Know What To Do

Do you ever feel like you are going in circles and not making any progress? At least not the kind of progress you were expecting. Are the constant appeals of our world pulling you in so many ways that you question if you're even headed in the right direction. We all have plans and dreams we want to fulfill, but some days it may seem we're just surviving, not accomplishing the goals that we planned: Too many distractions, Too many choices and Endless interruptions all demanding our attention.

There have been days I've felt like one foot was fixed to the floor, while the other one scurried in every direction. Expending a lot of energy and mental fatigue, but going nowhere. Can you relate?

Wouldn't it be awesome to wake every morning and be assured you're on the right path towards your goals? To know with certainty that you are headed in the right direction? To feel confident with each step, without constantly questioning yourself or second-guessing a decision. As I have wrestled with indecision and feelings of insecurity, I've sought God's Word for help. A few months ago I found a priceless nugget of truth in the Bible. It addresses our desire for guidance and shows us what to do when we need clear direction.

King David composed these words in a beautiful psalm, tucked within the pages of the Old Testament.

"Show me the right path, O LORD; point out the road for me to follow. Lead me by your truth and teach me, for you are the God who saves me. All day long I put my hope in you." (Psalm 25:4-5)

These verses reveal David's humble and teachable heart. He wanted to be guided by God and led by His truth. David knew God was his Savior and placed all his hope in the One who created the right path for him.

We find the answers to David's request for guidance only a few short passages away. Promises we can claim for our own lives:

"The LORD is good and does what is right; He shows the proper path to those who go astray. He leads the humble in doing right, teaching them His way. The LORD leads with unfailing love and faithfulness all who keep his covenant and obey his demands." (Psalms 25:8-10)

Based on these verses, when our hearts are humble and truly seeking God's will, we can be confident of this:

- 1. God will always show us what is right for us.
- 2. When we get side-tracked, God will direct us back to the right path.
- 3. We are not alone. God leads and teaches us along the way.
- 4. God leads those who obey Him with unfailing love and faithfulness.

If you're unsure about some things in your life, don't wait another day trying to figure it out on your own. Ensure your heart is in the right place of humility, and then ask God to help you. Once you've asked, trust that God is directing you. If you know you've gotten on the wrong path, seek God for direction instead of looking to the world for answers. As you take steps to follow God's voice, He will lovingly show you the way.

God Loves You and We Love You Too
