When He Comes For You

On the night of His betrayal, Jesus was in the “upper room” with the apostles.

In one of the longest immediate contexts of scripture in the New Testament (John 13-17), and just before the events that led to His leaving them and going back to Heaven began to unfold, Jesus gave the apostles a great deal of instruction and encouragement.

That very evening He was taken into custody and run through a series of mock trials. The next day He was on the cross. If these instructions could be classified by importance, certainly one of the most important things He told them that evening was what we read in John 14:2-3.

“In My Father’s house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for, I will come again and receive you to Myself; that where I am, there you may be also.”

A great deal is to be gleaned from these two verses.

First, Jesus affirmed that there is life after death. He was about to die on the cross, but that would not end His life.

He speaks of Heaven in terms of a place of many dwellings where the faithful will live in eternity.

His care for us continues even as He is in Heaven and we remain on this earth.

He is there actively preparing a place for us to be with Him.

These facts ought to bring great comfort to every one of us, especially as we face difficult situations in this life. Jesus is coming back to receive us to Himself.

Jesus warned us to be ready for His return.

“Therefore you also be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect” (Matthew 24:44)

The prospect of going to be with our Lord in Heaven for eternity should be thrilling for each of us. But, the realization that only those who are prepared will go to be with Him is also quite sobering.

Scripture only indicates one trip that Jesus will make back to this world for us.

At that point He will take the faithful to Heaven to be with Him, but this world will be destroyed. (2 Peter 3:9-10) Our time here on this earth will be over, and our time to prepare for eternity will also be over. If we are not ready to go and be with Jesus at that time, it will be too late.

The gates of Heaven will be shut to us (Matthew 25:1-13) and we will be cut off from Him and have to suffer the torments of Hell for eternity. (2 Thess. 1:7-9)

There is no other alternative, according to scripture.

So, our Lord is in Heaven preparing a place for the faithful — only for the faithful. We are determining our faithfulness right now on the basis of how we are living our lives every day. (Rev. 2:10)

Our love for our Lord is demonstrated by our obedience to His teachings. (Jn. 14:15, 21, 23-24)

Are you living by His teachings?

Are you ready for the Lord to come back for you?

If God declared right now to be the time for the Lord to return, are you ready?

On that day it will be too late.

God Loves You and We Love You Too
