On The Way To The Barn

There's an old story about a farmer who decided one morning to plow the south forty acres. His tractor needed oil, so he started for the barn to get it; but on the way he remembered that he hadn't fed the pigs yet. In the corner by the pig feed was a pile of sacks, it reminded him that the potatoes were sprouting. But, on his way to the potato pit, he passed the woodpile and remembered the kitchen stove was burning low.

While picking up wood for the stove, he noticed that one of his chickens was ailing, so he dropped the wood to doctor the chicken..... And so his day went, till the end of the day, and he realized he still had not oiled his tractor or plowed the field.

We've all had days like this.

Can we relate this to our Christian life as well?

We always have good intentions. 'Study the Bible more, Pray more, Call or Visit the sick or Help out a friend.'

Somehow we get distracted on our way to The only way we will ever "get to the barn" of Christian service is to get our priorities in order.

If you make the commitment and extend the effort, God will make a way for us to "get to the barn."
