Putting A Face On The Fetus

The New York Times recently ran interesting article about a new business popping up around the country.

Limor Fronimos, 25 weeks pregnant, was taking part in one of the stranger and more controversial outgrowths of the ultrasound industry - the high-resolution, artistic photography of fetuses - and was overwhelmed by what she was seeing on the video monitor.

For a few hundred dollars, expectant mothers can get sepia-toned prints to give to their families and friends, a CD-ROM with the pictures so they can be e-mailed around the world and a DVD with a 20-minute video of the fetus squirming in the amniotic sac.

...when the baby would not cooperate, choosing instead to shield herself with tiny hands from the prenatal equivalent of paparazzi, [the nurse] gave the mother chocolate.

"It goes straight to the baby," [the nurse] said. "It's a sugar rush."

Sure enough, the image on the screen soon became clearer, and a big smile could be discerned.

The article mentions a lot of opposition to the new business. A few doctors were quoted as having concerns about the lack of any studies of negative effects of the high powered ultrasound, etc. A major unmentioned reason for the fierce opposition is because it "humanizes" the human inside the mother's womb. Putting a "face" on her fetus makes it much harder for a mother to decide to abort her child.

With this and other evidence available today, there is no excuse for judges and politicians to allow doctors to continue the practice of abortion.

We have a superabundance of pots, pans, dishes, etc., on the counter in the fellowship hall. Please go by and pick up your things.

Thank You from Karren

Thank you so much for all your prayers during the months of my brother's battle with leukemia. I know that his suffering was eased by your prayers. Thank you, too, for your many kindnesses to me--your thoughts, prayers and kind words were a source of comfort. The flowers at the funeral were beautiful. Chuck was a very special man and a wonderful brother. I will miss him forever, but I am so very blessed to have such a loving and supportive church family. Thank you. Karren Griffith.

Thank You from Mike & Sharon

Thank you does not seem enough to say for all that you've done for our family. Whether you sat with us in ICU, prayed for Wilma Lee's comfort and for us, brought food, or sent flowers and cards, we will forever hold you in our hearts for your thoughtfulness. Please continue to pray for Earl, Pat, and our children as we adjust to our loss. In Christian love, Mike and Sharon Gamp.

Bible Time Team Needed

In the month of August we need a team of about 5 adults to take Children's Bible Time. If you would be willing to be a part of the team for August, see Joanne Miller or Steve Miller right away. If we are unable to find the personnel for August, we will probably use August as an opportunity for parents to train their children to sit quietly through the auditorium service.

Sunday PM Services

This evening we will have a singing devotional. Afterwards we will have a 15 minute presentation on the big screen highlighting what happened at VBS. And after that we can all go to the fellowship hall and finish off the cookies and punch left over from VBS.

Big VBS Thank You

Wow! Can you believe what happened this week here at Sunshine! It was one terrific week of fun, laughter, singing, memory verses, crafts, Bible lessons, Bible characters, skits, puppets, contests, cream pies and a new hair-do for Scott Gampp. I'm surprised the building is still standing. Besides the excellent attendance (we tied our all-time record on Monday night) we also got to hear Count VBS apologize for misbehaving at VBS. The Friday Night program was outstanding. We especially enjoyed the grand entrance of the Count. Many, many thanks to the adults and teens who worked so hard in their areas to make something special for our kids. There were over 65 adults and teens every night who came to help with crafts, refreshments, shepherding, teaching, program practice, audio and video services, record-keeping and on and on. This year's VBS has got to be in the top 5 that I have ever been a part of. Thank you to one and all for making this kind of event possible. God is good all the time! Steve Miller

VBS Evaluation Meeting

Next Sunday (July 11) after morning services, everyone who worked in VBS is invited to the fellowship hall for a brief meeting to discuss improvements for next year and a possible theme for next year's VBS. Bring your ideas. We'll write them down so we don't forget.

Camp Applications Available

In the foyer on the bulletin board is a manila folder full of Fort Hill Christian Youth Camp applications. Our week is coming up soon, July 11-17 and is for ages 10-18 (although if a parent comes as chaperon or counselor we'll take your children regardless of age). Please go ahead and get your paperwork and deposit taken care of. If you are a camper but are short on funds, see Shaun McCray; there is some money set aside for camper scholarships. If you would be willing to work as a counselor or cook or night watchman. etc., see Shaun or Lisa McCray. Of course, if this week doesn't work for your family schedule, check out the other weeks of camp.
