Jobs Versus Ministries

Psalms 100:2

"Serve the Lord with gladness: come before his presence with singing."

Some people have a job in the church, others involve themselves in a ministry. What's the difference?

- 1.If you are doing it just because no one else will, it's a job. If you are doing it to serve the Lord it's a ministry.
- 2.If you quit because somebody criticized you, it was a job. If you keep on serving, it's a ministry.
- 3.If you'll do it only as long as it does not interfere with your other activities, it's a job. If you are committed to staying with it even when it means letting go of other things, it's a ministry.
- 4.If you quit because no one praised you or thanked you, it was a job. If you stay with it even though nobody recognizes your efforts, it is a ministry.
- 5.It's difficult to get excited about a job. It's almost impossible not to be excited about a ministry.
- 6.If our concern is success, it's a job. If our concern is faithfulness, it's a ministry.
- 7.An average church is filled with people doing jobs. A great and growing church is filled with people involved in ministry.

Brethren, think about it! If we are not already involved, let's get involved in ministry for the Lord and his church!

Get Off the Pew and Vote

This will be a close election by anybody's reckoning. It could be determined by a few thousand, a few hundred, even a few dozen votes in each state. The closeness of the election just underlines the importance of every Christian making it to the polls to vote on November 2. I urge you to use your vote to steer our nation in a positive, God-honoring, life-affirming direction. More important than your vote is the daily prayer that you can offer for our nation and for her leaders, especially in a time of war. These are simple things that every Christian can do and ought to do.

Steve.

Sunday PM Home Groups

Our Sunday PM Home Groups continue this evening and through November 14, five Sundays in all. The groups meet from about 6:30 pm till around 8 or 8:30 pm in 9 different locations. One group meets here at the building. The other 8 groups meet in homes of our members. A few of our homes still have room for more people. Go ahead and sign up. The material we are using for the teaching is from a video series entitled Making Things Right by Paul Faulkner. These groups are a great way to get to know people better. Tonight's lesson is Cut Your Line When It's Tangled.

- Home Group Leaders

The final 2 video tapes are ready for pick up. They are on the table in the foyer.

- Home Group Hosts

Don't forget to record your attendance on the chart on the bulletin board.

Teen Devo

Elbrooke Services in November

November is our month to conduct Sunday and Thursday services at Elbrooke Pavilion. We need people to commit to help with conducting the services as well as people to just come and help with the singing, etc. Sunday services are at 2 pm and Thursday services are at 7 pm. We need speakers, prayer leaders, song leaders, etc for Sunday. On Thursdays we want to sing for the people at Elbrooke. All you singers and song leaders show up for Thursdays. If you can help with the Sunday service, sign up for the job and the date you will help. Sheet is posted on the bulletin board. This Thursday at 7 pm we are scheduled to sing at Elbrooke. Be there. Song books will be available at Elbrooke.

Children's Bible Time News

In November, our lessons will focus on Galatians 5:22-23 (Fruit of the Spirit). Please begin working with your child on memorizing this verse. Also, an offering will be taken during CBT and added to the general fund. Please make sure your son or daughter has something to give.
